

WHY A PRE-APPROVAL?

Certainty is a precious commodity in a rapidly changing market. A pre-approval with Global Jet Capital allows you to act decisively on your desired aircraft when the right moment presents itself.

You're Focused on Securing the Right Aircraft. We're Focused on Making the Process Simpler.

Pre-approvals are more important now than ever due to current business aviation market conditions with limited high-pedigree inventory available. A pre-approval isn't a promise that you'll finance with us. It is, however, a promise from Global Jet Capital that your needs will be met if you do follow through with acquiring an aircraft—all at no additional cost to you. With current business aviation market conditions and limited inventory, the speed to close time is imperative and we give you a competitive edge above the rest.

Don't allow financing to stand between you and your aircraft. Get Pre-approved today.

Information required to start the pre-approval process:

For companies:

Customer due diligence, up-to-date financial information and Ultimate Beneficial Owner disclosure

For individuals:

Personal financial statement and bio, as well as customer due diligence
